Rishi: More energy help if I'm PM

TORY leader hopeful Rishi Sunak has promised more money to help people with energy bills, if he becomes prime minister.

The ex-chancellor said he would seek government 'efficiency savings' to fund this, to limit borrowing.

The amount of support isn't yet decided and would depend on how much energy bills rise later this month.

Allies of his rival Liz Truss accused Sunak of 'another big U-turn'.

"Three weeks ago he was saying borrowing was irresponsible and inflationary – has he changed his mind? How can Rishi's borrowing not be inflationary, but Liz's tax cuts are?"

"Intellectually it's as watertight as a sieve," a source in the Truss camp said.

Experts estimate the typical household annual energy bill will be £3,358 in October, compared to £1,400 the previous year.

NHS op wait numbers fall

THE backlog of people waiting more than two years for a routine operation has shrunk from 22,500 at the start of the year to fewer than 200.

Health staff have been praised for carrying out the NHS elective recovery plan, published earlier this year to tackle backlogs built up during the coronavirus pandemic. At the start of the year, more than 22,500 people had been waiting two years or longer for scans, checks and surgery.

A further 51,000 who would have passed the two-year mark by the end of July were also treated.

SCRAP 'RACIST' COMMONWEALTH GAMES!

TO most people, the Commonwealth Games – which closed on Monday night – are, at best, a joyous sporting celebration of nations united by a common bond of history.

Or at worst, a sort of Tesco Value Olympics. But now a writer for the left-wing Independent newspaper claims the games are RACIST and should be scrapped!

Nadine White, the Independent's dedicated race correspondent writes: "Although the games are an opportunity for talented athletes from various walks of life to showcase their abilities on a world stage, and potentially change their individual lives, I'll

Joyful sporting occasion should be banned because of slavery, colonialism, etc

admit that the concept of it sticks in my throat a bit.

"I love a good game as much as the next person, but the Commonwealth, as an institution, is rooted in chattel slavery and the brutalisation of Africans.

Trauma

"People such as my ancestors, who were abducted from Nigeria, brought to Jamaica and forced to work.

"Moreover, the fact that so many socio-economic inequalities experienced by citizens of Commonwealth countries is a direct consequence of the evils of the British Empire is not lost on me."

White goes on to claim Britain has refused to pay compo to the descendants of former slaves – while failing to mention that it was the British Empire that enforced a ban on slavery.

She concludes: "The Commonwealth Games should be scrapped and replaced with a sporting event that isn't bonded by racial trauma."

UNITED: England relay team and Nadine (right)

White has previously written that dementia, Sesame Street, theme parks, the Tory leadership campaign and the Queen's Platinum Jubilee are racist.

Jobs jumper design guru Miyake dies

THE man who made Steve Jobs' jumpers has died, aged 84.

Revolutionary Japanese fashion designer Issey Miyake has died, aged 84, his company has announced.

Known for his innovative styles and perfume, Issey Miyake built a global fashion brand, which included designing the Apple boss's iconic turtle neck jumpers.

He was known to experiment with traditional and modern techniques during his career of more than 50 years.

Miyake died of liver cancer and a private funeral has already taken place.

Born in Hiroshima in 1938, Miyake was just seven when the city was devastated by an atomic bomb dropped by the United States.

He said in 2009 that he did not want to be known as "the designer who survived the atomic bomb".

He was however, known as the designer that made Steve Jobs' jumpers.

Jobs was unavailable for comment last night, as he died in 2011.

Port workers next to strike

TALKS aimed at averting strikes by workers at the Port of Felixstowe have failed to resolve a dispute over pay.

Members of Unite are set to walk out for eight days from August 21.

Felixstowe is the UK's biggest container port.

The port authority said it offered a £500 lump sum on top of a 7% pay rise during talks.

A spokesman said: "We regret that, despite our best efforts, we have still been unable to reach an agreement with the hourly branch of Unite."

"During talks the port further improved its position, offering a £500 sum in addition to 7%."

"The hourly branch of Unite has again rejected the port's improved position and refused to put it to its members."

UNDER SIEGE: Trump supporters outside his home

YANKS are bracing for a bloody CIVIL WAR following an FBI raid on former President Donald Trump's Florida home on Monday night.

Angry Trump supporters descended on his Mar-a-Lago home after hearing the FBI was searching the former President's estate as part of an investigation into whether he took classified records from the White House to the Florida estate.

Trump, disclosing the search in a lengthy statement, claimed agents had opened a safe at his home and described their work as an 'unannounced raid' that he likened to 'prosecutorial misconduct.'

The raid on Trump's home

By NELSON SAUVIN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

represents a dramatic and unprecedented escalation of law enforcement scrutiny of the former president.

Many of his supporters were angered by the raid and a raucous crowd – many wearing Trump-themed clothing – gathered outside his Florida home to show their support.

Rogue

The crowd held pro-Trump signs, including ones for a 2024 campaign.

One was publicly identifying as a member of the far right Proud Boys.

The raid on Trump's home intensifies the months-long probe into how classified documents ended up in more than a dozen boxes located at Mar-a-Lago earlier this year.

It occurs amid a separate grand jury investigation into efforts to overturn the results of the 2020 election and adds to the potential legal peril for Trump as he lays the groundwork for another run.

Georgia congresswoman Marjorie Taylor Greene, a staunch Trump supporter raged: "This is the rogue behaviour of communist countries, NOT the United States of America!!"

"These are the type of things that happen in countries during civil war."

Trump and his allies have portrayed the search as a weaponisation of the criminal justice system and a Democratic effort to stop him from winning another term in 2024.

GIGGS 'LIKE TWO PEOPLE' SAYS LOVER

A WOMAN who claims ex-Man United footballer Ryan Giggs controlled her in their relationship thought he was her "soul mate" but saw early "red flags", a court has heard.

PR executive Kate Greville, 36, told cops it was "almost like was he was two people" during their relationship.

Ms Greville was interviewed weeks after she alleged he headbutted her in November 2020.

Both were married when their affair started, and she was unhappy with her husband.

She said: "It was like he was my best friend but there were definite red flags."

He said Giggs told her he needed more time to end his marriage.

Eventually she decided to move to Abu Dhabi to "get away from him". Jurors at Manchester Crown Court were told the 48-year-old's private life involved a "litany of abuse, both physical and psychological, of a woman he professed to love".

Giggs denies using controlling and coercive behaviour against Ms Greville between August 2017 and November 2020.

He has also pleaded not guilty to assaulting the 36-year-old and of the common assault of her younger sister, Emma Greville.

Cara Delevingne wants to do sex...on telly!

The model-turned-actress is on a personal quest to educate herself about the wonders of sexuality in the upcoming documentary series Planet Sex with Cara Delevingne.

"On this immersive journey, she puts mind and body on the line in search of answers regarding human sexuality, its joys, mysteries, and constantly changing nature," the streamer announced.

"In every episode, she shares her own personal experiences. Uniquely unfiltered and authentic, there's no limit on how far Cara's willing to go to explore what makes us all human."

Pansexual

In recent years, Cara has become more open about her own journey of sexuality.

"I never really came out," she told British Vogue in July. "It was more that I just decided that I was done with being in the closet, I was done with being ashamed for who I loved and who I was."

By GRACE HOOPER

"So, for me, it was just being like love is love and we should be able to love who we want."

In 2020, she shared that she was pansexual. Cara started her modelling career in 2002 at the age of 10, becoming one of the most sought-after models in the world.

Planet Sex with Cara Delevingne premieres in 2023 on streaming channel Hulu.

Pox sparks monkey killings

WILDLIFE charities have reported a rise in attacks on monkeys as monkeypox spreads.

The reports have emerged in Brazil where capuchin monkeys are being stoned and poisoned by fearful locals.

Dener Giovanini of the National Network to Combat Wild Animal Trafficking said: "We have noticed an increase in cases of animals that are persecuted, stoned or even poisoned. It is important for us to make it clear that Brazilian monkeys do not have the new pox virus and do not pose any threat to humans".

Heche in coma after car inferno

US actress Anne Heche is in a coma and hasn't regained consciousness after a collision that left her car "engulfed in flames".

Heche, 53, was taken to hospital following the incident on Friday in Los Angeles and remains in a critical condition.

She is the former partner of US talk show host Ellen DeGeneres and is known for films like Donnie Brasco.

"Reports stating that Anne Heche was stable were inaccurate," a spokesperson said.

"Shortly after the accident, Anne became unconscious, slipping into a coma and is in critical condition."

"She has a significant pulmonary injury requiring mechanical ventilation and burns that require surgical intervention."

Heche's blue Mini Cooper struck a home and "erupted in fire" according to the Los Angeles Fire Dept.

Lovely Rita gets hitched in secret do

RITA Ora has married director Taika Waititi in an intimate ceremony in London.

The singer, 31, is said to have already changed her surname and will now be known as Mrs Waititi-Ora.

The Hot Right Now hitmaker and the Thor: Love And Thunder director, 46, have both been pictured with gold bands on their ring fingers in recent days – sparking speculation they had tied the knot.

Rita and Taika started dating in March 2021, before going public with their romance that August.

The couple got engaged two months ago, and sources now claim that they are planning a huge party to celebrate their secret wedding with friends and family.

A source said: "It was a really intimate ceremony and special for everyone there. Their nearest and dearest can see how madly in love they are."

"Despite living in the spotlight, Rita wants to keep the relationship as private as possible."

Ms Cousins, who is originally from Bradford, has also been banned from the city centre, as part of her bail conditions.

The video of a couple having sex at Concert Square, went viral last week.

The incident prompted the Mayor of Liverpool, Joanne Anderson, to express her 'extreme shock and concern' regarding videos of public sexual activity being shared on social media.

"This isn't amusing – it's disturbing, damaging and an illegal act," she said in a statement on social media.

THIS WAS A DELIBERATE DESCENT INTO BESTIALITY

SICK: Ghani's DNA was found on the pony

By MILES PLATTING news@sundaysport.co.uk

A MAN has been jailed for having sex with a pony after creeping into its field in the night while high on drink and drugs.

Abdul Ghani's DNA was found at the scene, Bradford Crown Court heard.

Ghani, 52, of Beamsley Road, Frizinghall, Bradford, pleaded guilty to having intercourse with an animal in September, 2018, after stalking the field in the Bradford area where the Shetland pony and other horses lived.

Jailing him for ten months, Judge Andrew Hatton said: "Owners of horses and ponies are entitled to feel their animals are safe from people like you. The message must go out that this sort of grossly unnatural behaviour will not be considered for suspended sentences of imprisonment."

Judge Hatton said it wasn't an isolated act, it was "a well-planned and deliberate descent into bestiality."

Prosecutor Michael Collins told the court cops found 993 searches on Ghani's phone about sex acts with animals, especially horses.

Cucumber

In August, 2018, the pony's owners, a mother and daughter, became concerned about things found in the horses' field shelter. There was a torch, a cucumber, a scrubbing brush and a bag of carrots.

The following month, the pony's tail had hairs out of place and a greasy substance on her back end. Black tape was found nearby and a lump of sugar, not something the owners would feed to horses.

They reported it to the police and the pony was examined by a vet. DNA was a match for Ghani.

A police officer then saw a blue Toyota Yaris parked near the field. Inside the vehicle was a large cucumber, baby oil and a bag of carrots. A

EXCUSE: Ghani said he was owl watching rucksack found in the field had apples and carrots, biscuits, rope and silver tape.

The Yaris was traced to Ghani.

He told officers he 'loved the wild' and would go out at night to watch owls and foxes.

When asked what the rope was for, he said that it was to hoist himself up into trees to look at owls.

He had convictions for 17 offences, mainly relating to drink, drug and driving offences, Mr Collins said.

He asked for compo of £110 for the vet bill and a Criminal Behaviour Order banning Ghani from entering the land or any other land where horses, ponies and donkeys were kept.

Jonathan Turner, Ghani's barrister, said his client was ashamed and embarrassed.

He conceded there was 'little positive' to be said about the offence except that the pony wasn't injured.

Ghani was under the influence of alcohol and drugs when he visited the field. He had committed the offence because of them.

Mr Turnersaid having sex with horses was not a fantasy for Ghani, just strange behaviour.

He was banned from driving for two years and five months and Judge Hatton made the Criminal Behaviour and compensation order.

Ghani must sign on the sex offender register for ten years.

The union will now consult with its 100,000 health members across the NHS in both England and Wales on whether they accept the "imposed deal" or want to challenge it through industrial action, which could mean strikes this winter.

STRUGGLING Amber Heard has been thrown a lifeline...by a PORN producer!

The Aquaman star was ordered to pay ex-hubby Jonny Depp a whopping £6.9million after a court found she defamed him in a newspaper article.

Heard is reportedly struggling to find the money – but now a Fairy Godmother has arrived in the form of top grumble makers Zen Models.

The female-owned adult entertainment company, has offered Amber the huge sum of money to star in a new movie.

As well as the huge fee, Zen are offering to donate $1million to each of Amber's two fave charities.

Stripped

The offer came in a letter from Zen Models' president, Veronica Madjarian, to Heard's lawyers.

She wrote: "We have been in contact with a group of adult film production companies that are interested in offering Ms. Heard a contract to perform in an adult entertainment video production."

"Our group is willing to pay Ms. Heard the sum of $8,000,000 to star in an adult entertainment production."

"Additional sums of $1,000,000 would be paid to Children's Hospital and the ACLU, in her name."

"Please let me know if Ms. Heard would consider this opportunity."

While Amber has never starred in a porn movie before, she has stripped in several movies, including 2008's The Informers (right).

One fan said: "I'd watch that movie... and probably pull the end clean off."

Prison for vet mum who stole £2m army gear

AN army veteran who pleaded guilty to stealing £2million worth of military gear was sentenced to 18 months in prison.

Jessica Elaintrell Smith, 30, must also pay nearly £1.1million to the Army as restitution.

The vet pleaded guilty in April to stealing dozens of Army thermal scopes, radios and night vision goggles. She and two co-conspirators snatched the expensive specialty equipment in June last year.

Soldiers at Fort Hood, Texas, found the locks on 17 shipping containers had been cut and 137 items missing.

"It was a smash-and-grab," Assistant US Attorney Joel Stacey Dunn, said. "They took whatever they could."

Smith (above) and her co-conspirators were caught when Army investigators spotted items from the stolen loot for sale on eBay.

Smith's lawyer said the mom of two got "financially desperate" in trying to provide for her children.

Co-defendant, Nathan Nichols, pleaded guilty and is scheduled to be sentenced in October.

A third co-defendant, Brandon Dominic Brown, pleaded not guilty. He will go on trial on September 6.

MISS BOASTED OF SEX WITH STUDENTS

BAD TEACHERS:
Bertha and hubby allegedly groomed teens
with alcohol
and drugs

A RANDY school miss boasted of sex with male students, while grooming a female student for sex with her hubby!

An arrest warrant has been issued for Bertha Adriana Cerna, 40, on one count each of first-degree sexual misconduct with a minor and supplying liquor to a minor.

The charges come less than two months after a former student filed a lawsuit alleging that Bertha (above), a former teacher and wrestling cheer team coach at Toppenish High School, in Washington state, and her husband, Johnny L. Cerna, a former vice principal and wrestling coach at the school, "groomed" the student for sex.

That lawsuit also alleges that the couple gave the victim alcohol and narcotics.

The initial investigation into Bertha and her husband began in June, 2021, when that student showed another teacher at the school "inappropriate" text messages allegedly sent to her by Johnny.

According to a sworn affidavit, the student told investigators that she had been offered alcoholic beverages from Bertha and Johnny, which she sometimes accepted.

The student said she had been to the Cernas' home on several occasions, where she often drank booze and had been offered marijuana.

Additionally, Bertha allegedly provided the student with a detailed account of her sexual conduct with multiple male students, "even going as far as to show photos of their penises," the report stated.

Another former student told investigators that she had drank alcohol at the Cernas' residence when she was a member of the cheerleading squad, and she provided the name of a recent graduate who was allegedly having a sexual relationship with Bertha.

Baseball

Authorities tracked that former student down who said he and Bertha had intercourse in her car at a baseball field two days before he graduated high school. He was 17 at the time.

The Cernas were both terminated from their roles with the school in January after an investigation found it "more probable than not" that Bertha and Johnny had inappropriate interactions with students.

When reached for comment, Bertha reportedly said, "I have no comment. F**k you. You can report that."

Nutter takes a dig at supermarket

A LOON stole an excavator from a building site and drove it a mile to a supermarket, where he used it to rip up the car park.

Police received calls about a man "randomly digging up a grass strip and sidewalk" outside Smith's grocery store in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Police said the suspect caused significant damage after hitting a water pipe and ripping out fibre optics utility lines.

It is unclear why the man stole the heavy machinery and began his assault on the store.

A group of witnesses stopped the suspect from leaving the scene until officers arrived.

The man was taken into custody and charged with theft and criminal mischief, according to authorities. His name and age were withheld until the booking process is completed.

Police said no injuries were reported and no crashes occurred while the excavator was being illegally operated.

GRAN TELLS COPS: 'I NEED A BEER'

A GRANDMOTHER was arrested after she called for "police assistance in getting a beer," say cops.

According to a criminal complaint, 68-year-old Rosie Pate then "became angry and slapped" her granddaughter after she refused to get her the alcoholic beverage.

When interviewed by officers at her home in Memphis, Tennessee, Pate (left) reportedly admitted that after striking her kin she "dialled 911 for police assistance in getting a beer."

In addition to being charged with misusing the 911 system, Pate also got hit with a domestic violence count for slapping her relative.

She was later released and is scheduled to be appear in court at a later date.

Parrot thief left hurt bid at bus stop

A MAN known as "Redbeard" is facing charges after he stole his roommate's parrot and left it injured at a bus stop.

Justin Peters, 40, was arrested after pilfering the parrot – named Piper – from a 37-year-old woman and has been charged with grand theft and animal cruelty.

The £1,500 bird's owner told police that she instructed Peters (above) to never let it out of her cage or remove it from their residence.

A witness spotted Peters leaving the bird and scooped it up, police in Monroe County, Florida said.

Piper was returned to her owner but had suffered broken bones, a dislocated hip and blunt force trauma to one side of her body.

A GoFundMe has since raised over £500 to help pay the bird's medical bills.

Surveillance video later tied Peters to the area of the bus stop and he was taken into custody Tuesday.

THERE is one group of people who are always busy...

They are the unsung public relations grafters who devise the various National Something Days.

There is not a date in the calendar which is not marked by some sort of awareness campaign, mainly dreamed up to sell something.

Well, today is apparently National Lazy Day.

Nobody knows who came up with that one, or when. But apparently today is the day to put your feet up and do nothing.

That said, we all know people for whom clearly every day is National Lazy Day.

The online blurb for National Lazy Day reads: "Celebrate your inner couch potato by giving up all your daily chores and doing nothing the whole day long!"

So here's five pages of topless ladies doing bugger all.

DRIVEN TO KILL

MONSTERS OF DEATH ROW

THE WORLD'S MOST EVIL MURDERERS AND THE HORRIFIC CRIMES THAT SAW THEM SENTENCED TO EXECUTION...

THERE was so much bloodshed – and it was all sparked by something as trivial as a pick-up truck.

Back in August 2005, Mike Hernandez was general manager at California Auto Specialists, a used car dealership in the Los Angeles suburb of Colton.

Mike was accustomed to the occasional cross word from customers and tempers sometimes flared, but there was never anything that couldn't be sorted out.

Mike says: "We might have the odd mild argument but that's it.

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Nothing even close to physical violence has ever happened here."

That all changed, however, when Louis Mitchell stepped onto his forecourt.

Earlier in the day, Mitchell and his girlfriend Dorene Small had been shopping for a new car to cope with their expanding family – Dorene was a mother of four while Mitchell had three children from a previous relationship.

They'd stopped at California

Auto Specialists and looked at a Dodge Durango before leaving.

After discussing their options, Dorene had returned later that day to seal the deal.

However, the Dodge had a fault – it managed to break down before Dorene had even got it home.

Upon hearing the news, Mitchell flew into an unholy rage. He marched back to the dealership, pulled out a gun and began shooting.

Employee Patrick Mawikere, 20, died in a hail of bullets.

Salesman Mario Lopez, 59, needed emergency surgery for horrific gunshot wounds. He died hours later.

Another two employees – Juan Bizzotto and Jerry Payan – were badly wounded but somehow escaped with their lives after jumping through a glass window.

Wounding

Mitchell, though, wasn't done yet.

He targeted another dealership worker – Armando Torres – at a nearby apartment block, unleashing round after round from his gun, badly wounding Armando and killing his 16-year-old brother, Susano.

Mitchell was arrested the following day, having threatened three other people with his gun.

He was eventually shot in the leg by police and apprehended.

As the officer approached him, Mitchell had screamed: "Come on, you're a cop – you're supposed to kill me!"

If that was a sign

TRAGEDY: Shocked colleagues at scene of shooting

Mitchell wanted to die, he got his wish in May 2006 when he was handed the death penalty.

Everyone involved in the case lamented a culture where such small personal sleights could result in such horror.

Survivors and close friends Juan Bizzotto and Jerry Payan were left deeply traumatised by the events of that tragic day after watching their colleagues die.

But the pair remain determined to live their lives to the full as a way of holding up two fingers to the man who tried to end it all for them.

Jerry said: "The best I can do is just talk to Juan all the time.

"We're going to stay close to each other. He lives down the street from me. We're going to pull through this somehow.

"This is the end for Mitchell – but it's not the end for us."

In cases such as these you see outpourings of grief from the families of the victims.

In this case, however, reporters investigating the killings were often met with a wall of silence.

And there was a very good reason for that – Mitchell was a certified gang member and those who spoke out feared recriminations.

Rages

Of course, Mitchell was no stranger to the police. He'd only been out of prison for two years, having done a stretch for peddling cocaine.

He was also prolific user of a drug called PCP, which left him prone to violent rages.

True to form, on that fateful day he'd been high on drugs – a fact that his defence lawyers later used to try to mitigate the severity of his sentence.

Mitchell and Dorene were in the market for a car after she'd received a cash settlement from her insurance firm having been in an accident.

Court records reveal: "After Small picked up the settlement cheque from her insurance company, she and Mitchell went to California Auto Specialist (CAS) to shop to buy a replacement vehicle.

"At first, they were helped by salesman Juan Bizzotto.

Because he couldn't speak English well, he referred them to colleague, Mario Lopez.

"Lopez helped them complete paperwork to purchase a used Dodge Durango truck."

Mitchell then left, leaving Small to finalise the purchase.

The court files reveal: "Small told Lopez she needed to cash a cheque at a bank in order to make the downpayment.

"Lopez agreed to allow

IN FRIDAY'S

LUCKY ESCAPE: One victim jumped through glass to get away from Mitchell (pictured after being arrested)

GANG-BANGER: Mitchell was high on drugs when he killed over a Dodge Durango (right) window overlooking the car lot.

"They saw Mitchell return to the dealership. Bizzotto, who was on his phone talking with his wife at the time, also noticed Mitchell.

"There were no customers in the dealership at the time.

"Payan and Bizzotto both testified that they saw Lopez meet Mitchell at the entrance of the dealership.

"Although Payan wasn't alarmed by Mitchell's behaviour, Bizzotto testified that Mitchell was excited and angry, in contrast to his behaviour earlier that day.

"Payan then saw Mitchell pull a gun out of his pants pocket and shoot Lopez.

"Payan testified that Mitchell was looking at Payan when he shot Lopez."

Hell

Dorene wasn't too fazed by the breakdown. The dealership promised to get it fixed so Dorene went ahead with the purchase anyway.

But when she got home and told Mitchell what had happened, all hell broke loose.

Mitchell felt he'd been "screwed over".

The files continue: "Between 2.15pm and 2.30pm on August 8, 2005, Payan, Lopez, and Patrick Mawikere were gathered at Payan's desk facing the gun at him. Mawikere asked Mitchell not to shoot him.

"Mitchell shot him in the head, then turned toward Bizzotto.

"He attempted to hide underneath his desk and Mitchell started shooting at him.

"Bizzotto was shot in the right arm and the right thigh.

Mitchell fired another seven times at Bizzotto, causing him to suffer shrapnel wounds to his left leg."

Shooter

Bizzotto somehow managed to summon the police through a 911 call while Mario Lopez clung to life.

Having been shot twice in the stomach, he later succumbed to his injuries.

Meanwhile, police identified Mitchell as the shooter.

They went looking for him at the Yellows apartment complex. By this point Mitchell had already pulled a gun on Armando Torres, hitting him in the leg as a woman managed to pull him inside her apartment and call 911.

When Susano Torres went to see what was happening he, too, ran into Mitchell.

Mitchell pulled the trigger, sending a bullet straight through both of Susano's lungs.

He died in agony a short time later from internal bleeding.

When Mitchell was eventually tracked down, he'd approached a weapon-wielding officer, screaming: "My gun is bigger than yours! F**k it, I'll just take your gun," before being shot in the leg himself.

In the end, Mitchell received life for the shootings of Bizzotto and Payan and the death sentence for the three murders.

Salvador Munguia, a salesman at the CAS car dealership, said: "As a society, we're losing the value of life." All the lives lost, meanwhile, were deeply mourned.

Patrick Mawikere was described as a rising star with a knack for matching customers with the right vehicle.

His friend, Chris Carroll, said: "He was much more concerned with what a purchase would mean to your life than being someone who was only concerned with selling you a car and pocketing your money. He was a good guy."

Devastating

Mario Lopez's family also grieved.

One relative told the press: "Mario was the father of four children. He was a good man.

"Some people never learned how to cope with the negative things in their lives. The result is devastating sometimes to the innocent."

That's something for Mitchell, now 50, to think about as he awaits his walk to the death chamber.

CRAZED HUBBY KILLS WIFE... ON THEIR WEDDING DAY!

NEWLYWEDS: Dolgikh and bride Oksanna

A GROOM has been jailed for 18 years after killing his new wife on their WEDDING DAY in front of shocked guests.

Stepan Dolgikh, 35, beat bride Oksana Poludentseva, 36, to death – then dumped her body in a ravine.

He told a court that he believed his new bride was cheating on him.

Dolgikh already had a previous conviction for murder but the wife – who got to know him while he was in prison as a pen pal – believed she could tame him.

Witnesses said he started kicking and punching mother-of-one Poludentseva after becoming "jealous" of her talking with another guest at their alcohol-fuelled wedding party in a private house.

Grabbed

He accused her of "behaving incorrectly", it was alleged.

Chief investigator Kirill Petrushin told the court in Novosibirsk, Russia: "He began to punch and kick her outside the house."

He continued to attack her inside the house.

"He grabbed her by the hair, hit her, pushed her out into the street, where he also continued to strike her body and head."

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

When she appeared lifeless "he dumped her into a nearby ravine".

The incident was just a few hours after the couple had exchanged vows at their wedding.

Other guests were reportedly so scared to intervene but called police who arrested Dolgikh at the scene.

He confessed to the killing, said Petrushin.

"He beat her for a long time, in front of witnesses, and struck her vital organs – in the torso and head," he said.

He "fully admitted guilt during the investigation" but failed to repent, he added.

"He was jealous of her with one of the male guests," said Petrushin.

A friend said: "She truly loved him, and was waiting for his release."

FUN-LOVING Skye Bee is really looking forward to the end of the month...

Because she's heading to Cornwall for a well-earned holiday.

The 32B cracker said: "I live in Bristol so Cornwall is more or less on my doorstep but it still takes a long time to get down there.

"There are no motorways, which is part of the charm but it does make for a long drive.

"But I'll make plenty of stops and have a few cream teas as I make my way down to the coast."

When she's there, Skye is looking forward to a bit of sunshine.

She said: "Hopefully the weather will be kind. I hope to find a nice secluded cove and sunbathe naked. I hate tan lines!"

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Monuments to wasting money

EVER wonder where all your money goes?

The money that you never get to see, or feel – or even briefly own?

All of us in work get our pay packets every week or month that always lists the most depressing set of figures, no matter how much or how little you earn.

It's right there in front of you under that bleakest of descriptions: "Deductions."

And most of those deductions, for most of us, are to see about a third of what you're meant to earn magically taken away before you've even sniffed it – and that's BEFORE we even mention 'National Insurance'.

Bizarre

All lost to the endless black hole that is income tax to be lavished on civil servants who are neither civil nor servants, busybody town hall nobodies, drug addicts, drag queens and dissidents.

And then there's the rest of it, that many of us – me included – just don't see.

Expensive but invisible rubbish that quietly gets pushed through by Mr and Mrs Councillor Moron when we're not looking, which, thanks to the death of properly staffed local newspapers, we aren't.

Those bizarre little statues and pieces of questionable artwork that suddenly pop up in the middle of the town square, or a hillside, or outside a new leisure centre that, in any case, is no doubt earmarked for closure.

Bottomless

These exhibits of self-grandeur almost always come courtesy of local authorities who, for everything we actually want, will plead poverty after first confirming that the computer said no.

But when it comes to paying for shiny stupid stuff with other people's money, to the benefit of literally no one, then that wedge can be found in the magic bottomless money barrel.

These people are, almost literally, simply putting lipstick on a pig to make themselves feel better, or – even worse – to "leave behind a legacy" of their hopelessly brief and miserable existence on earth.

No matter how rubbish your local newspaper has become, I'll bet the last time you looked at it there was a story or a reader's letter or two bemoaning what the council aren't doing.

In return, the council will argue that the horrible evil racist Tory government is "starving" them of funds – as though the government has any funds of its own other than what it takes from all of our salaries every month.

Councils

Frankly, I don't care if it's a local council or a national government spaffing my cash up the wall on shite.

I'd simply prefer that they didn't do it at all and gave me my own money back so that I can spend my hard-earned on anything I want, rather than what a fat c**t in a dreary council annexe thinks I want.

And while slowly stewing myself into a fury about all this utter waste, I read that, since 2019, councils have across Britain have spurned nearly £15 million of YOUR council tax on... ART.

One piece, built in a square in Gloucester, is a set of steps with red lights running through the edges of them and a fountain bit, that will probably get turned off because of, y'know, the 'crisis' – whichever crisis the nutters decide it is this week.

The price?

To you, Sir Mug... a mere £1,865,000.

And don't forget – we'll send you to prison if you don't pay the council tax to pay for something you didn't want and never, ever asked for.

'I wish I had tried bum fun a lot sooner!'

#MY SEX FANTASY

...WITH NICOLE SMITH, 36C, FROM MAIDSTONE, KENT

I ONLY tried anal last year, but now I can't get enough!

I had always been too afraid to try it, thinking it hurt. But then I was feeling adventurous after a few drinks and gave it a go.

We used lots of lube and he went really slowly at first and oh my god!

It was the most intensely pleasurable feeling.

I was begging for more! I had such a powerful orgasm.

Now I'm up for a bit of bum fun quite a lot! It needs to be when we've got some time, for me to relax and really enjoy it.

I've even tried a vibrating butt plug which was amazing!

I've asked my boyfriend for a strap-on dildo that when he penetrates me I get some DF action. I can't wait to use it!

It's made me think that you should definitely try something before you say you don't like it. Never say never is my new moto!

Drunk nurse 'shot up home' in dispute

A NURSE is behind bars after allegedly firing her handgun into an apartment while PISSED as a fart.

Kathryn Pugh, 39, allegedly had too much to drink and perforated her apartment with bullet holes during a feud with a downstairs neighbour, police said.

Police say the woman in the apartment below Pugh's called 911 to report the sound of a gunshot and a bullet hole in her ceiling.

Cops arrived on the scene in Acadia, California, and allegedly found Pugh "intoxicated and in possession of two legally registered handguns."

"Both the victim and suspect have an ongoing dispute over apartment-related issues," police said in a statement.

Police allege she fired three rounds in total, through her floor and an exterior wall.

"It appears they were fired intentionally."

Pugh faces two charges of discharging a firearm at an inhabited dwelling. There were no reported injuries.

Fact me!

DEAD skin cells are a main ingredient in household dust - humans shed around 200 million skin cells every hour

Schools stash guns against shooter risk

A YANK lawman has installed safes filled with assault rifles and ammo at six schools in response to recent shootings.

"We were able to put an AR-15 rifle and extra magazines with ammo in those safes," said Madison County Sheriff Buddy Harwood.

Harwood says he took the step in North Carolina after it was revealed poor decision-making and a lack of training were reported as key failures in June's Uvalde massacre.

Then, Texas cops stood in a corridor for more than an hour in June while Salvador Ramos, 18, murdered 19 children and two teachers before he was shot dead.

"I just want to make sure my deputies are prepared in the event that happens," he added.

SEAN SPILLS THE BEANS ON SEX SCENES

Star claims new rules 'ruin the thrust'

BRIT movie star Sean Bean claims intimacy co-ordinators 'ruin' Hollywood sex scenes by spoiling spontaneity and reducing it to 'a technical exercise'.

Intimacy coaches were introduced to protect actresses after the #MeToo campaign and have played a key role in creating sizzling sex scenes for hit dramas including Bridgerton and Normal People.

But Game of Thrones star Bean, 63, who has filmed many explicit sex scenes throughout his career, said: 'I should imagine it slows down the thrust of it.'

'Ha, not the thrust, that's the wrong word. It would spoil the spontaneity,' he explained.

'It would inhibit me more

By NELSON SAUVIN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

because it's drawing attention to things - somebody saying, 'Do this, put your hand there, while you touch his thing...'

'I think the natural way lovers behave would be ruined by someone bringing it right down to a technical exercise.'

Chemistry

Bean's most notable sex scene was with Joely Richardson in the 1993 adaptation of DH Lawrence's novel Lady Chatterley's Lover.

He said: 'Lady Chatterley was spontaneous. It was joy. We had a good chemistry between us, and we knew what we were doing was unusual because she was married, I was married.'

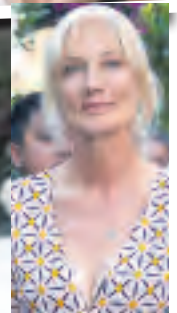

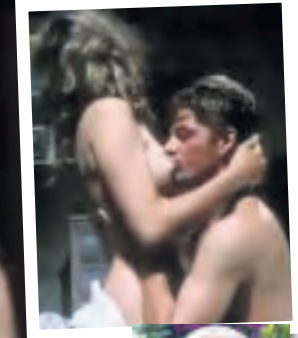

'But we were following the story. We were trying to portray the truth of what DH Lawrence wrote.'

Sex-scene coaches are mandatory at the BBC and praised by actresses including Daisy Edgar-Jones, who starred in BBC's daring 2020 Normal People.

She said an intimacy coach was 'brilliant' because it was their job 'to worry about how the sex scenes would work. We just turned up, did the choreography and carried on'.

But Bean said the use of intimacy consultants 'depends on the actress'.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Bexi.

I WENT on the piss last week and pulled a Dutch student who is over here travelling.

She's blonde with a cracking body – big tits and a lovely arse – and she had a very liberal attitude towards sex.

On the first night I shagged her, we did everything – oral, 69er, doggy-style and even ANAL!

I started off by undressing her and then licking her out. She was loving it as I slurped away at her love-tunnel and it wasn't long before I'd got her juices flowing.

I brought her to orgasm, then she made a grab for my cock, pulling it out of my jeans and sucking greedily on it.

She was begging me to take her from behind and I eased myself into her gash. But after only a couple of minutes of thrusting into her, she demanded I stick my dick in her tight bumhole!

I couldn't believe it! Are all European birds this filthy?

GH. Kent

Bexi says...

YES – the Germans are even better!

Dear Bexi,

MY girlfriend and her filthy mate put on a bit of a lesbo show for me a couple of weeks ago and I ended up boning them BOTH

Me and the missus got chatting ages ago, after one of our wild sex sessions, about trying a threesome at some point.

Thankfully, she was up for doing it with another woman and quickly arranged for her fit pal to make up the numbers.

When we got down to business, I slipped into her mate from behind while she was licking my bird out.

They then changed over and I did my bird while she was fingering her mate.

The problem is that my girlfriend's mate is so much better in bed than she is. I've shagged her on her own a few times and she was brilliant in the sack.

I'd now like to move in with her, but I don't want to ruin a relationship which has lasted so long. What should I do?

JJ. email

Bexi says...

THE wise thing to do would be to stay with your girlfriend, but I dare say you will do whatever you want. It's your choice.

Dear Bexi,

I VISIT a company run by a young husband-and-wife team to help with their computer systems.

When I arrived last week it was very hot and the wife was wearing a skimpy low-cut top.

When she bent over I couldn't fail to notice her round tits and pert nipples.

She smiled and encouraged me to massage her boobs while she stroked the bulge in my trousers.

I put my hand up her skirt and inserted two fingers straight up her fanny and worked away until she climaxed.

She then said she wanted to watch me wank off. She slid off her knickers and spread her legs while I beat one off – though anyone could have walked in.

I have to go back in a couple of weeks and can't afford to lose the contract – which I will if the hubby ever finds out.

What should I do?

DW, Reading

Bexi says...

PROGRAMME her to be careful.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week BEXI WILLIAMS has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Park nookie spy was our son's girlfriend!

Dear Bexi,

I WAS inspired to try a shagging session with the missus in our local park after reading about the fun and games that students get up to in your paper.

They seem to get off on having sex in public places and I thought my wife might enjoy it, too.

We're both in our 50s and our children have grown up and moved out, which means we can experiment with sex again.

When I mentioned doing it in the park, she really got into the idea.

She wore a pair of thigh-high black boots with a knee-length skirt and overcoat and no undies at all!

It was just going dark and on the walk to the park I managed to get my hand up my wife's skirt.

Judging by her soaking fanny, she was as turned on as I was.

In the park I sat on one of the swings and my wife got down on her knees and gave me a slow and sensuous blowjob.

Then she lowered her skirt and straddled me on the swing. We managed to get quite a rhythm going as we swung back and forth.

Slippery

At this point I caught sight of a young woman over my wife's shoulder, who was stood under a tree watching us.

So I pulled my wife's arse cheeks as wide apart as I could to give her a better view of my big, fat cock thrusting in and out of her.

The woman hitched up her own skirt and got her hand in her knickers.

I was so turned on by this, I quickly blew my load deep into my wife's dripping pussy.

That's when my wife also spotted the young woman and decided to give her a real show by bending over the slide and slowly fingering her slippery fanny.

I thought she'd stop when the woman came over, but instead my wife ordered her to get her tongue in!

It was a fantastic sight as I sat there and watched. But when I took a closer look at the young woman's face, I got a shock as I realised it was only our son's latest girlfriend!

Now I'm worried that she'll tell our lad what we've been up to.

HR, Exeter

Bexi says...

WHY worry? He might be proud of you for having a shag in the park at your age.

Gutbucket swinger rode me like a hippo

Dear Bexi,

MY wife and I were looking to join a swingers' club and I made contact with one in our area, where the pictures of the women looked great.

We went to a party at the home of the club's chairman, but I quickly noticed the women there were all pretty ugly or really fat.

I asked the chairman about the women I had seen on the website and he said they were former members.

My wife, however, seemed to be enjoying herself and she soon went upstairs with the chairman, who was grinning like a Cheshire f**king cat!

Then a fat bird waddled into the kitchen and eyed me up. To be honest, I don't normally go for women who are larger than a size 10, I simply can't stand the sight of all that flabby flesh when I'm banging a bird.

Pounded

Anyway, this gutbucket turned out to be the chairman's wife, so I thought: "F**k it," when she got hold of me and led me upstairs.

When she stripped off her kit to reveal her five bellies I felt a bit sick, but stuck with it.

Then she took out her false teeth, sucked me until I was semi-hard and hopped on my poor old man and rode me like a hippo.

Afterwards I escaped to find my wife and watched as the chairman gleefully pounded her.

I never want to go again, but my wife loved it and wants us to go every bloody week!

What should I do?

BC, Liverpool

Bexi says...

TRY a different swingers' club.

Dear Bexi,

I'M a 24-year-old builder who has been working on some new flats in a posh part of town.

A woman next to the site seemed to be regularly at her window and it was clear she was ogling me.

We got chatting and she invited me in for a sandwich. But it was clear that more was on offer.

She said she was divorced and hadn't had sex for ages. And she said it was her fantasy to shag a hairy-arsed builder.

She's 40 and a curvy 36D with long black hair.

Normally, I think of myself as a sensitive lover who always puts the woman first.

But this time, I grabbed her roughly and stuck my tongue down her throat.

Then I unzipped and coaxed her head down and she took my bulging cock in her mouth.

Then she hitched up her skirt to reveal no knickers and a neatly-trimmed bush.

I called her a "slut" as I pushed her over the sofa and then plunged deep into her fanny.

Since then I've been for a shag at hers most days. But when I offered to take her out for a meal, she said she wouldn't be seen dead with a builder!

'N' HORNY Lola TAYLOR

DO you know what lusty Lola likes? Having her massive 36H boobs rubbed and fondled by another girl, that's what!

The busty beauty, originally from the Czech Republic but now living in Birmingham, said: "Don't get me wrong, I like men and I like it when they fondle my huge breasts."

"But a woman has that gentle touch on my hard nipples that can make juices run from my fully-shaved pussy."

"And when I am all wet, she can slide in a dildo and make me cum over and over again. And usually when I come, I squirt, too - like a broken dishwasher!"

Lola added: "I also love just lying on my bed, teasing my little pink clitty and maybe putting a finger in my bumhole."

"It is very naughty, no?"

SPECIAL OFFER: ANY 3 PRIVATE SHOPS DVDS FOR £25 (was £75)

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc*** and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of nosh as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

NEKANE

THIS stunning shot of Spanish stunna Nekane comes at the request of reader Thomas Matters.

Thomas, 37, from Ipswich, asked for a photo of Nekane's 36Ds to add to his collection of Euro babes he has in his lorry cab.

Thomas said: "I'm always on the road abroad and want a babe from every country I drive through."

"I have a huge collection stuck to the inside of my cab but missing one from Spain. Help us out, eh?"

WE'VE had stacks of requests begging us to print a snap of glamour legend Michelle Clack's 36DDs.

Salford taxi driver Gary Hart was one of the many readers who asked for a photo of the Kent model.

He said the Maidstone-born lass is his all-time fave pin-up and it would really make his day to flick through his fave newspaper and see busty Michelle with her norks out.

Gary, 42, said: "Answer my prayers and run a picture of crackign Michelle? It's been ages since I saw a pic of her topless." You're right, Gary, Michelle's got a fare pair!

CURVY Claire Margason was the choice of Harry Jackson after he stumbled on one of her vintage videos. Media studies student Harry, 21, couldn't stop thinking about Grimsby-born Claire after researching 90s movies

He said: "I need to see more of Claire as she looked sensational when I saw her all sexy and stuff."

"Make my day and print a photo of her flashing her 34Cs, please?"

This block contains three small, square images. The top-left image shows a woman with long dark hair and a black top, looking surprised or shouting. The top-right image shows a woman with long blonde hair and a striped top, looking down. The bottom image shows a woman with long dark hair and a blue top, looking up.

Climate looks too hot at Salisbury

CLIMATE can make a winning debut for John and Thady Gosden in the British Stallion Studs EBF Upavon Fillies' Stakes at Salisbury.

Previously trained in Ireland by Jessica Harrington, it is perhaps no surprise that she has been moved to England by her owners given her last three outings have all been in the UK.

There appears to be more opportunities to gain valuable black type and given she heads into this Listed event with the highest rating, it looks the right call.

Creditable

Climate has one piece of form in the book that is head and shoulders above anything else any other filly she faces can offer.

On her first outing this season in the Group Two Dahlia Stakes at Newmarket, she was beaten just a length and a half in a race that has worked out incredibly well.

The winner, Ed Walker's Dreamloper, went on to win a Group One in France next time out and the third, Francis Graffard's Ebaiyra subsequently won a Listed race before finishing a creditable third to German

By MIKE FRANCIS

Derby winner Sammarco in a Group One at Munich.

Since then Climate has had just the one outing, when failing to see out a mile and a half in a Group Three at Haydock, so this drop down to just less than 10 furlongs should be right up her street while her main rival, Rose Of Kildare, wants further.

The Gosdens unleash an interesting newcomer in Dark Kestrel in the Molson Coors British EBF Novice Stakes.

A 370,000 guineas purchase from Tattersalls Book One sale, the Dark Angel colt is related to Harry Angel and Supremacy.

Glamorous Breeze can return to winning ways in the S H Jones Wines Handicap.

Chris Mason's four-year-old has been in great heart and has not finished out of the first three in her last five outings.

On her penultimate start at Chepstow, she was a very easy winner in an apprentice handicap which meant she was not penalised last time out at Ascot in a stronger race.

She slightly missed the break but was soon back travelling strongly and, if anything, found herself in front too far from home.

If held up for longer, she can bag another win.

Seeking Gold made a very pleasing debut for Tom Clover and can go one better in the British Stallion Studs EBF Novice Stakes at Yarmouth.

Second to the promising Chaldea at Newbury, he once again takes on some choicely-bred rivals but his experience should stand him in good stead.

While Charlie Appleby's Modern Dancer was a winner first time out, the 7lb he concedes means he will have to be well above average to score again and his debut form has been let down.

D Day Odette should be suited by the step up to 10 furlongs in the Follow @ attheraces On Twitter Maiden Handicap.

Unlucky

Not sighted on her Kempton debut for Joe Tuite, she took a huge step forward when fourth on her first run for Kevin Philippart De Foy.

Placed efforts at Goodwood and Newmarket have followed and the switch in trip might allow her to get into a better rhythm.

The stable could also be celebrating a hat-trick of wins for Elsals in the Cazoo Handicap at Ffos Las.

Richard Fahey's Minnesota Lad has been unfortunate to bump into two above average recruits so far in his young career.

DREAMLOPER

WE'VE GOT ALL THE BIG SPORTS STORIES COVERED

Billings pumped for Lions showcase

SAM WANTS TO FORCE HIS WAY INTO ENGLAND TEST PICTURE

SAM Billings believes captaining the England Lions against South Africa offers his best chance of earning a recall to the Test squad.

The England Lions squad, who have all left their respective Hundred and Royal London one-day cup squads, are playing the Proteas in Canterbury.

Harry Brook and Will Jacks are among the 13-man squad, which will be captained by Billings, to face the tourists, who got the better of England in both the Twenty20 and the one-day international series earlier in the summer.

Paul Collingwood will take charge for the match, which takes place ahead of the first Test at Lord's starting on August 17.

Billings believes the immediate shift to red-ball cricket, after the Kent wicketkeeper captained the Oval Invincibles during their victory over Welsh Fire on Sunday, is a challenge, but one the players are used to.

CRICKET By GEOFF TRUEMAN

"It is a challenge. But it is what it is really," the 31-year-old said.

"As players we want to give ourselves the best chance of playing for England, it's as simple as that."

"Whatever the schedule is, it is what it is but, for me, I want to press my claims to try and get back in that Test squad."

"I had a taste of it and this seemed like the best option for me and my cricket moving forward, so it was a pretty easy decision."

"It is challenging but, like I said, it is something that you've just kind of got to find a way to manoeuvre around and adapt to."

Billings believes a number of players have points to prove, with Ollie Robinson, Keaton Jennings and Craig

Overton among those hoping to earn an England recall.

"It's an opportunity, of course, for individuals to pursue their ambitions," he said.

"It definitely is the best way in a schedule where there's not much red-ball cricket around the Test series, so it is the perfect opportunity to do so."

"So a lot of people this week have got points to prove and opportunities to kind of take."

When asked about Robinson, who has not featured for the national side since January and has had to contend with a back injury, but was named in England's 14-man squad for the Test, Billings believes he is fully fit.

"He seems as he always is. He bowled brilliantly in that Championship game a couple of weeks ago, and we know the class he has and the skill level he possesses," he said.

"So, if he's fit and firing, he is a huge asset to any team, and he also provides that edge. So, it's nice to get the ball in the back spaces and, again, he's played a lot of cricket now."

"So, as a senior bowler in this side, there's definitely someone I can lean on to ultimately get the best out of."

South Africa could be without Kagiso Rabada for the tour match, with Dean Elgar unwilling to state whether the fast bowler would be fit for the first Test after he missed the final T20 against England through injury.

Right

"Obviously that is one of our top priorities that we have at the moment. Look, he has bowled since we've started our camp in Canterbury," Elgar said.

"Going through the workload that's maybe the biggest concern; whether he can carry himself throughout a Test with the intensity and volume of overs in a day."

"For now he's doing all the right things, I can't say yes or no as yet because there are eight, nine days out before we play the first Test but it is high on our list to get him fit."

NEW NO1: Ward

Dan's the main man for Foxes

By JOHN ANTHONY

LEICESTER boss Brendan Rodgers says he has no doubts over his decision to appoint Danny Ward as first-choice goalkeeper this season.

Ward made just his second Premier League appearance in over four years for the Foxes in Sunday's 2-2 draw against Brentford after Kasper Schmeichel's departure to Ligue 1 side Nice.

Rodgers said Daniel Iversen would also be challenging for the role last week when Schmeichel ended his 11-year stay at the King Power Stadium before handing Ward the number one jersey for his side's Premier League opener.

When asked if his mind was made up over his number one this season, Rodgers said: "It is yes, very much so."

"I've always said, and the guys that have been here during my time will tell you what I've always said about Danny Ward, I feel he's a number one goalkeeper."

Outstanding

"He's got the number one shirt and I think you've seen his presence. He was commanding the box, came for crosses, he's very good with his feet."

Ward, who helped Huddersfield win top-flight promotion during a season-long loan spell in 2016-17, has had his patience tested after serving as back-up for former Foxes skipper Schmeichel since joining from Liverpool in 2018.

"He deserves the opportunity to play," Rodgers added. "We've got a young goalkeeper in Daniel Iversen, who's done very well out on loan, so he's there."

"And ideally if we were to bring someone else in it would be a number three so I could get our young Polish goalkeeper Jakub Stolarczyk out on loan, because I think he's going to be outstanding, but he needs to play."

Ward looked the part against Brentford and was faultless for both the Londoners' goals as they fought back from 2-0 down to snatch a point.

After goals in either half from Timothy Castagne and Kiernan Dewsbury-Hall had put Leicester in control, the Bees hit back through Ivan Toney and a stunning late equaliser from Josh Dasilva.

ON THE VERGE: Billings

POPE PRAYED FOR A WIN

Nick thrilled to get off the mark quickly

NEWCASTLE new boy Nick Pope has admitted his delight at not having to wait until the end of October to taste Premier League victory.

The 30-year-old England international was part of the Burnley side which collected all three points for the first time last season at the 10th attempt when they beat Brentford 3-1 at Turf Moor on October 30, and was on the receiving end when the Magpies finally ended their drought with a 1-0 win over the Clarets on December 4, their 15th game of the league campaign.

By ANDY MILLOM

Pope, who joined Newcastle in a £10million summer switch, made his competitive debut on Saturday and helped Eddie Howe's men brush aside promoted Nottingham Forest in a 2-0 opening day success.

He said: "It's what you look for as a goalkeeper, what you look for as a team.

Thrust

"We want to win as many games as we can and it's lovely to get off to the start that we did and have the performance to go with it as well.

"We had a good laugh because it took me 10, 11 games to get a win last year and there were a few more here at Newcastle so it's nice to be one from one."

Pope, unlike fellow new boy Sven Botman, was thrust straight into Howe's starting line-up at the expense of Slovakia international Martin Dubravka, and could hardly have enjoyed a more comfortable debut as he did not have a single save of note to make.

He knows there will be tougher tests ahead, but was happy to have played his part in a win which simply served to add to a growing sense of optimism on Tyneside.

Pope said: "You gain that with experience and, when you get older, you know that as a goalkeeper you do have to wait for the game to come to you a lot of the time and chasing it, if you like, is something that can be detrimental to the team.

"It was important for me to keep that focus and deliver what the team needed."

Howe says he doesn't want to rush Botman into the team. He wants the £34m buy to have a close look at the Premier League before playing a full part for the team.

The Newcastle gaffer said: "Sven has been a long-term target for us - I'm delighted to have signed him. This period - however long it is before he gets to start - will do him the world of good.

"He'll get to know the league and get to know the speed, and I've got absolutely no doubts about him as a player.

"He's going to be a top player for this football club in my opinion, but there's real competition for places.

"Fabian, Dan and Jamaal are not going to give their shirts up easily, and it's a battle that I'll love to see unfold.

"Knowing I've got that quality bodes pretty well for the season ahead."

PERFECT START: Pope kept a clean sheet on debut

NEW IN TOWN: Sven Botman

HAAL TOO STRONG SAYS AARON

AARON Cresswell admitted West Ham struggled to contain Erling Haaland as the Manchester City new boy got his first taste of the Premier League.

Hammers full-back Cresswell is unlikely to be the last Premier League defender to speak about the difficulty of dealing with City's £51million striker this season.

Haaland opened his goal account in England with a first-half penalty and a superb second-half finish after darting through West Ham's defence as City got their title defence up and running.

"It is the first time I have

By PAUL THOMAS

played against him," said Cresswell. "He is so powerful and direct.

"It's obviously really disappointing from our part but we were up against a fantastic team.

"The conditions were really hard for us, certainly when they keep the ball.

"They have a lot of possession and you feel like you're constantly chasing. We were up against a really good team but we were disappointed with that.

"We started really well, in the first five minutes we put them on the back foot and then just when you're looking to punish them, they get control of the game and make it very difficult."

Haaland wanted a hat-trick but in truth he could have had five, missing a couple of presentable headers and just failing to get on the end of an Ilkay Gundogan pull-back.

In what could become a recurring theme this season, Kevin De Bruyne provided the assist for the second goal when he slid through a superb pass for the Norway international to slot beyond Alphonse Areola.

"Obviously sometimes, it's not 100 per cent yet," the Belgian said.

"But we've only played a couple of games. He will make the runs, and if I find him he will score the goals. We can be sure of that.

"He's there to score goals and help the team, and he did that.

"I'm not putting too much pressure on him. I know there's a lot of hype around him and obviously to start this way is good for him."

As for himself, De Bruyne says there's more to come.

He added: "I had a good break, I'm coming back slowly and know it can still be better but I'm not worried about that.

"I'm trying to improve physically and mentally and I feel good."

OUT THE BLOCKS: Erling Haaland

FIRST SUB: Will Hughes

Clubs set a new sub standard

PREMIER League clubs made the most of the new rule allowing five subs on the opening weekend of the new season.

Here, we look at how managers deployed their additional resources.

RINGING THE CHANGES

While only two games saw the full 10 subs used – Tottenham's rout of Southampton and Man City's win at West Ham – the average team made 3.85 changes.

Palace and Arsenal kicked things off with four and three subs on Friday, with Palace making the first 'extra' sub when Will Hughes and Malcolm Eboli were introduced in the 86th minute.

Newcastle joined Spurs and Southampton as the first teams to make five changes during the 3pm kick-offs.

Five more followed – Chelsea and Brentford, Manchester United, West Ham and City on Sunday – for a total of eight across the weekend maxing out their resources.

Palace and Liverpool were joined by Aston Villa, Leeds and Brighton in making four changes, while Arsenal, Fulham, Bournemouth, Nottingham Forest and Everton stuck with the old three.

The outliers were Wolves, who waited until the 85th minute to introduce Chem Campbell as their only sub, and Leicester who put on only Patson Daka.

LEAVING IT LATE

Managers mostly left it quite late to make their subs, particularly those who used the full five.

Of 146 subs, 15 came in the 90th minute or stoppage time – 10 per cent of the changes.

Newcastle brought on Chris Wood and Jacob Murphy in the 90th minute and Sven Botman three minutes later, United threw on Anthony Elanga, Tyrell Malacia and Alejandro Garnacho in the last minute and West Ham duo Flynn Downes and Conor Coventry were also stoppage-time arrivals.

Chelsea's Conor Gallagher was recorded by the Premier League website as being brought on in the ninth minute of stoppage time.

There were 38 substitutions in the 80th minute or later and 55 from the 70th minute onwards as managers largely used their expanded resources to freshen their side up for the final stages or give new signings a low-pressure bow.

Dalot backs United team-mates to put a worrying start firmly behind them

MANCHESTER United defender Diogo Dalot is confident positive results are just around the corner despite the defeat to Brighton.

All the optimism for the start of a new era under Erik ten Hag and a positive pre-season were wiped out in a desperate first 45 minutes at Old Trafford that very much belonged to last season.

Pascal Gross scored twice in nine minutes for the Seagulls, who outplayed United with 'brave, forward-thinking football.

An Alexis Mac Allister own goal after the break, which Dalot played a part in, got United back in it, but Ten Hag was unable to avoid defeat in his first competitive game in charge.

This is the start of a very big rebuilding job for the Dutchman, but Dalot believes results will not take long to come.

"Obviously, that is what we are here for," he said. "This result is not going to take our heads off the path we need to do.

"It is a setback but in football you don't have time to think a little bit, now we have to analyse and definitely do better.

"There were still some positives, the second half we had some good plays, we were a little bit more organised. We are going to have some time this week to organise and definitely do better for Brentford."

United fans suffered more misery and they booed their team off at the interval and full-time and Dalot knows the players have to start delivering.

"It is not an issue, they are with us 90 minutes, I am sure," he said.

"But obviously we need to perform and we need to push them with us as well, we need to give them joy of watching us.

"That is what we need to do and that is the aim that we want to win games, control games and have the fans with us for 90 minutes."

Strongly

While the narrative will be about United's struggles, Brighton were full value for their three points.

Despite losing star players Yves Bissouma and Marc Cucurella this summer, Graham Potter looks to have a team capable of pushing on from their ninth-placed finish of last term.

Defender Adam Webster added: "We finished last season so strongly, we lost a couple of players but the squad and the togetherness we have got here is brilliant and just shows the team spirit we have at this football club.

"Everyone is fighting for each other, everyone has come in and slotted straight away. It is a great group to be a part of.

"It is a great start, as cliched as it sounds we have just got to take each game as it comes.

"We want to try and improve every year and if we can do that it will be great."

United gave a debut to new signing Christian Eriksen against the Seagulls – but one club legend thinks the Dane won't solve the club's problems in midfield.

Roy Keane is a big fan of the new arrival from Brentford but fears expectations of his impact are too high.

He said: "I think he's a really good player.

"In the bigger picture, will he get Manchester United back competing

NEW GAFFER ERIK TEN HAG

STRUGGLE:
Dalot knows United need to improve

for league titles? The answer has to be no.

"My biggest worry for players like Eriksen, the big problem for United over the last few years when they're out of possession, especially against the better teams, they're not great at getting back.

"That's not one of his strengths. He's a really talented player, a very good player obviously, but I'm not convinced he's the answer."

Spoken

Eriksen has lifted the lid on United's chase for him, saying the Old Trafford giants have been trying to sign him for most of his illustrious career.

He said: "When I was at Spurs, I spoke to every manager who's been here at Man United to see what the situation was.

"So, it's been on the books. Well, not on the books, but it's been spoken about.

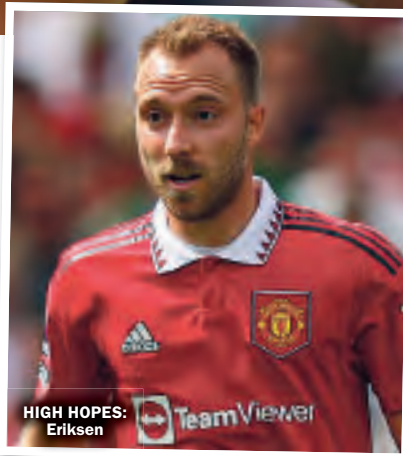

"For me, then wasn't the time to move. I was at Spurs for a long time and I wanted to try something abroad, so I went to Inter and ended up having a lovely time.

"But then obviously something happened in the summer and that changed the career path I had in mind, so I came back to England, to Brentford first of all.

"To be here at United is something I didn't think could happen a year ago. I never thought it was going to happen."

The Reds now face a tricky few games with Brentford away on Saturday followed by welcoming Liverpool to Old Trafford in round three of Premier League games.

Jürgen Klopp's men won their two clashes last season 9-0 on aggregate and will be keen to turn up the heat on new gaffer Ten Hag.

GRIFFITHS GOES DOWN UNDER

FORMER Celtic striker Leigh Griffiths has joined Australian semi-professional side Mandurah City. The club say the 31-year-old will play in their last two home games of the season.

Mandurah play in the Football West State League Division 1, which is among a group of 11 regional divisions in the third tier of football in Australia.

The club, based about an hour from Perth, are managed by former Raith Rovers, Partick Thistle and St Mirren forward John Baird.

Griffiths was recently training with Livingston to keep fit after leaving Falkirk at the end of last season.

Griffiths scored 123 goals in 261 appearances for Celtic but off-field issues, which led to him spending six months out of the game in 2018-19, affected the latter stages of his Parkhead career.

United legend backs Kop to win title

MANCHESTER United legend Paul Scholes says he's rooting for LIVERPOOL this season.

He may be a hero at Old Trafford but he's backing the club's arch rivals.

Scholes reckons Jurgen Klopp's men can upset the odds and pip City to the title – even after their stuttering start with a draw at Fulham.

The bookies don't agree with Scholes and make the blue half of Manchester as low as 4-7 to defend their Premier League crown.

Then it's 3-1 about

Liverpool, 14-1 Spurs with Manchester United a shocking 80-1.

But Scholes thinks the pennant will be flying over Anfield in May.

He wonders if Erling Haaland's arrival means City will take a little time to adapt.

He said: "Ifancy Liverpool to win the league. You can't write off Manchester City. They are a brilliant football team.

"They are changing a little bit, in transition, I think, with Haaland coming in.

"It will be interesting. Manchester City can win the Premier League, of course they can, because they are a brilliant football team."
